

The Armoire

Dear Sisters in Christ,

As we move through this beautiful summer season, I pray you are finding rest, renewal, and moments of joy in God's presence. Summer offers us a special opportunity to pause, reflect, and realign our hearts with His purpose.

This season reminds us of growth—not just in nature, but in our own spiritual lives. Just as the sun nurtures the earth, the light of Christ nurtures our souls. Even during seasons of waiting, stretching, or uncertainty, God is always at work, growing something new within us.

To each of you who serves, shows up, prays, and encourages others—you are making a difference. Your faithfulness, even when unnoticed by others, is seen and honored by God. Be reminded that your presence matters. Your voice matters. Your faith matters.

Let us continue to press forward together, encouraging one another and embracing all that God is doing in and through us. This ministry continues to flourish because of your love, your commitment, and most importantly, God's grace. May this summer be a season of refreshing for your spirit, and may you feel the nearness of God in every step.

With love and gratitude,
Phylinda Murchison, Newsletter and Social Media Coordinator

Meet The Team

Director's Corner

Sisters, in continuing out theme this year, "Devotion to God", there are various ways we can manifest this discipline. But firth, what does that really mean? Devotion to God is a heartfelt and sustained dedication, characterized by prayer, Bible study, and a commitment to living according to the teachings of Jesus. It involves cultivating a deep personal relationship with God through worship, meditation, and seeing to understanding His will in every aspect of life.

1. Prayer - is not just giving God our requests, it is positioning ourselves to hear the will of God for our lives. In Matthew 6:9, Jesus is teaching us to pray this way, Our Father (Relationship), who is in Heaven (Supreme Authority), Hallowed be Your name (Esteemed Honor), Your Kingdom come, (God's Rule), Your will be done (God's Reign). When we pray with this in mind, we are opening ourselves up to more than having a request line, we begin to position ourselves in the will of God. That means the desires of Abba's heart flows within us and through us, and we get to see our Good, Good Father in action, through us and to others.

2. Bible Study/Meditation – Scripture tells us in Psalms 1:2, to meditate on the Word of God, day and night. When we do this, we are reflecting on what the Word says and keeping watch (on ourselves and conforming our lives to His precepts). With our whole heart, we are seeking Him (inquiring of Him and longing for Him). The Word becomes the compass and pattern for our lives.

3. Discipleship - is following Jesus and living according to His teaching. Jesus is the greatest example of what that looks like. In Matthew 4:19, He says, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men". When we follow Jesus closely, we will have a fruitful ministry, His ministry. It was taught that, the disciples followed Him so closely that the dust from sandals were kicked up upon them. In turn, we too are to follow Him in a close manner.

4. Worship – is the act of attributing reverent honor and homage to God. We should do this with our mouths and more intently with our lives. Romans 12:1-2 explains that we are to offer our lives as living sacrifices, no longer conforming to the world and its systems, but being transformed by renewing our minds. It is not a passive experience, but an active engagement of the heart, mind, body, and soul. Simply put, it's expressing gratitude, obedience, and devotion to God.

Blessings,
Lennette Felton - Director

Fashion On My Mind

Cynthia Edwards
Event Coordinator

“My passion for fashion began a little girl playing with paper dolls and hosting fashion parties with my friends. Over the years, that love grew into participating in pageants, fashion shows, and department store modeling. I dreamed of one day walking the runway as an Ebony Fashion Fair Model. Though I didn’t meet the height requirements for Top Model, fashion gave me something greater - confidence. It taught me to love and appreciate the masterpiece God created in me. Today, I find joy in styling women and helping them see their own beauty. There’s nothing more powerful or beautiful than a woman wearing confidence.

RECAP OF LESSON: ANNUAL TEA

Foundational Truth: In a world of beauty and glamour, we must not get lost in striving to adorn the outward woman, instead we must adorn the inward woman, for it's her beauty that will last.

Principle 1: Our beauty should not be rooted (firmly established or entrenched) in outward adornment. Why?

a. Because it is Fleeting and Subject to Change. (Proverbs 31:30) states, Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord (AMP: reverently worshipping, obeying, serving, and trusting Him), is to be praised.

b. It's Costly! In today's economy, beauty is highly sought after. Millions of dollars are spent on hairstyles and products, on designer clothes, and body modifications, surgeries, weight loss medications and procedures, some for medical reasons.

c. It's Self-focused! We are living in a time of "Lover's of Self". The AMP versions states, narcissist and self-focused behaviors, including being devoid of human affection. (2 Timothy 2:2-3) a. It's Unfading! (Greek Word: Amaramatos) - Not subject to decay. It has the strength that can endure anything. It does not dim out, but remains vital.

Principle 2: Cultivate an INNER beauty that transcends the temporal.

b. It's Transformative! Inner beauty is not about our physique, but our character. We exchange our filthy rags for beautiful patterns of the Spirit's persona. This concept of having a gentle and quiet spirit does not suggest silence or passivity: rather, it refers to an attitude of serenity, humility, and trust in God. It's a beauty that emanates from a heart at peace, unburdened by vanity or the need of external validation. When you and I dwell with the Father, we are building radical change.

c. It has Eternal Significance! This beauty has great value and worth, for it is precious in God's sight and it endures beyond this life. Being gentle and quiet can have a profound impact on your loved ones, such as: an unbelieving spouse, our children, our neighbors, even our classmates and co-workers, and in turn, they give their lives over to the Lord.

So, How Do We Dress to Impress:

Prioritize Spiritual Growth: Inner beauty is cultivated through a deep and intimate relationship with God. We need to make time for prayer, meditation on Scripture, and moments of stillness to connect with Him. As we grow spiritually, the qualities of the Inner Woman will naturally blossom within us.

Put on Love, it's the spunk that holds everything in its place! When I step out of the house, no other portions of my body or attitude will intrude disgracefully!

Compassion is like a crown that I gracefully wear on my head, reminding me that I am the King's daughter, and I am here for a purpose that exceeds beyond my capability.

When I seek to be Kind to others, my sleeves are the extension of the very heart of God.

Be Gentle, like a scarf upon my shoulders, embracing others as I interact with them. A gentle spirit has the power to diffuse tension or challenging situations and bring healing to relationships.

Dress in a pair of Humble pants/skirt, because humility is a cornerstone of inner beauty. Just as Jesus displayed humility throughout His life and He is greater than I, I too am to recognize that I should serve and lift others up rather than seeking personal recognition.

With the belt around my waist, I am Bearing the burdens of my sisters. Maybe, someone is discouraged and by being available, I can pray for them, have a listening ear, a shoulder to cry on, and maybe even fast together for support.

Patience, I wear like jewelry around my neck, never telling when I will be in a situation that requires it.

Have Self-control as my shoes, making sure I maintain composure in every situation, with ten toes down, by recalling what would Jesus do, and putting that into practice.

Lastly, Surround Yourself with Support: Foster relationships with like-minded believers who understand the value of inner beauty. Encourage one another to grow in faith and character, holding each other accountable to prioritize spiritual growth.

So, ladies, dress the inner WOMAN, it is HER beauty that shall last.

Meet a Few of Our Senior Saints

We're honored to introduce you to some of the beloved pillars of our community—Ms. Mattie, Ms. Mary, Ms. Anne, and Ms. Connie—affectionately known by many as “The Golden Girls.”

In Scripture, senior saints are never sidelined. They are celebrated as vessels of wisdom, mentors in faith, and spiritual anchors in the life of the Church. The Bible tells us:

“Gray hair is a crown of glory; it is gained in a righteous life.” —
Proverbs 16:31

“They still bear fruit in old age; they are ever full of sap and green.”
— Psalm 92:14

These women embody God's enduring faithfulness. Through their prayers, encouragement, and life experiences, they continue to shape and strengthen our church family. Let's celebrate them and the incredible legacy they carry!
